13 ORDER GRANTING STIPULATION IN
14 PART AND DENYING IT IN PART

15 Re: Dkt. No. 22
16

17 On October 9, 2015, Defendants William Howe and Hugo Power Supply, LLC filed a 18 motion to dismiss this action for lack of personal jurisdiction and improper venue or, in the 19 alternative, to transfer the action to the District of South Carolina. ECF No. 12. Plaintiff opposed
20 the motion, ECF No. 13, and Defendants filed a reply brief, ECF No. 14. The Court subsequently
21 ordered supplemental briefing, which the parties filed, ECF Nos. 16, 17, and continued the hearing
22 on Defendants' motion from November 19, 2015 to January 7, 2016. ECF No. 15.

23 On December 21, 2015, the parties filed a stipulation, asking the Court to (1) transfer the 24 action to the United States District Court of South Carolina, Charleston Division; (2) refer the case
25 to arbitration, such arbitration to be completed within 120 days of transfer to South Carolina;
26 (3) order the parties mutually to agree upon an arbitrator, and permit the parties to move the 27 federal court in South Carolina to appoint one if the parties cannot agree; (4) effectuate certain 28 other agreements between the parties. ECF No. 22.

29 The Court now GRANTS that part of the parties' stipulation that transfers the case to the 30 Charleston Division of the District of South Carolina.¹ That request is supported by the forum
31

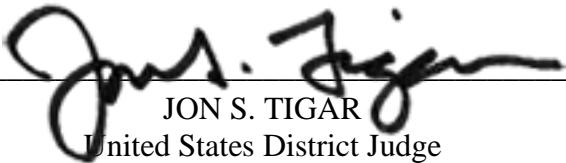

32 ¹ It appears that transfer to the Charleston Division satisfies the requirements of the District of 33 South Carolina's local venue rule, which makes proper any division "[w]here any natural

1 selection clause in the parties' contract, as well as by their stipulation. The Court will DENY the 2 balance of the parties' requests without prejudice. Some of the parties' remaining requests do not
3 require judicial approval, and the rest are more properly directed at the South Carolina judge who 4 will manage this case going forward.

5 The Clerk is directed to terminate the motion at Docket Number 12. The hearing
6 scheduled for January 7, 2016 is VACATED.

7 IT IS SO ORDERED.
